"What's in a name? That which we call a rose by any other name would smell as sweet."

William Shakespeare, "Romeo and Juliet"

At North Point Sr. Secondary Boarding School, English Language Day was celebrated on 23rd April'21 to entertain and inform students about the history, culture and achievements associated with the language and also the achievements of the innumerable writers, poets and playwrights. The programme started with a tribute to Shakespeare. The children recited rhymes and poems, narrated short stories as well as read out poems of several poets. It was a great learning experience for the students as the teachers discussed about the skills of communication and the importance of syntax and understanding. It was an immensely eventful day.
