

1. State the three necessary conditions for us to be able to see the object.
2. What is multiple reflection?
3. Give the relationship between the angle between the two reflecting surfaces and the number of images formed by them.
4. What do you call a prism that combines the component colours into white light?
5. What is the spectrum of white light?