Paragraph-Writing

Festivals

- * India is a land of festivals.
- * Festivals unite people and they come together for the sole purpose of celebration and happiness.
- * We can divide the Indian festivals into national, religious and seasonal.
- * The National festivals include

Republic Day, Independence Day and Gandhi Jayanti.

* Some of the prominent religious festivals are Diwali,
Eid-Ul-Fitr, Christmas, Guru Nanak Jayanti, Holi and many more. These festivals are very colourful and full of lights.

* Seasonal festivals are celebrated in the particular regions of the country. Bihu is a festival of Assam, Tamil Nadu celebrates Pongal, Basant Panchami is celebrated throughout North India and West Bengal as well.

* Festivals spark joy, so people look people look forward to festivals all-around the year.
