

Haru's house is near a lake. Living near a lake is exciting. Haru gets to take a walk to the beautiful lake every day with her parents. She likes to watch fish swimming in the lake. At night, the frogs croak and the crickets chirp. Haru can hear the frogs and crickets from her house. The view is pretty from her window every night as fireflies fly in the darkness. From her window, the fireflies look like stars moving in the sky. Haru once thought of catching the fireflies in a jar to keep them like a lamp in her room. But then she thought that the fireflies were better flying around in the open.

A Answer the following questions.

1. What makes Haru's house special?

.....
.....

2. What sounds can Haru hear at night?

.....
.....

3. Why didn't Haru catch the fireflies?

.....
.....

B Fill in the blanks.

1. Living near a is exciting.

2. Haru takes a with her parents every day.

3. At night Haru can see from her window.

4. She likes to watch fish in the lake.

5. Haru thought of keeping the fireflies in a jar like a in her room.

C Find eight verbs in the passage and write them in the blanks below.

1.

5.

2.

6.

3.

7.

4.

8.

